TREATY of perpetual Peace and Friendship between the Honourable the English East-India Company and the Nabob Tippoo Sultaun Bahauder on his own Behalf, for the Countries of Seringapatam, Hyder Nagur, &c. and all his other Possessions, settled by Anthony Sadleir, George Leonard Staunton, and John Huddleston, Esquires, on Behalf of the Honourable English East India Company, for all their Possessions, and for the Carnatic Payen Gaut, by virtue of Powers delegated to the Right Honourable the President and Select Committee of Fort St. George for that Purpose, by the Honourable the Governor General and Council appointed by the King and Parliament of Great Britain to direct and controul all Political Affairs of the Honourable East-India Company in India, and by the said Nabob, agreeably to the following Articles, which are to be strictly and invariably observed, as long as the Sun and Moon shall last, by both Parties; that is to say, by the English Company, and the Three Governments of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, and the Nabob Tippoo Sultaun Bahauder.

The Biby of Cannanore, and the Rajahs or Zemindars of the Malabar Coast, are included in this Treaty. The English will not directly or indirectly assist the Enemies of the Nabob Tippoo Sultaun Bahauder, nor make War upon his Friends or Allies; and the Nabob Tippoo Sultaun Bahauder will not, directly or indirectly, assist the Enemies, nor make War upon the Friends or Allies of the English.

Article II. Immediately after signing and sealing the Treaty by the Nabob Tippoo Sultaun Bahauder, and the Three English Commissioners, the said Nabob shall send Orders for the complete Evacuation of the Carnatic, and the Restoration of all the Forts and Places in it now possessed by his Troops, the Forts of Amboorgur and Satgur excepted: And such Evacuation and Restoration shall actually and effectually be made in the Space of Thirty Days from the Day of signing the Treaty: And the said Nabob shall also, immediately after signing the Treaty, send Orders for the Release of all the Persons who were taken and made Prisoners in the late War, and now alive, whether European or Native; and for their being safely conducted to and delivered at such English Forts or Settlements as shall be nearest to the Places where they now are, so that the said Release and Delivery of the Prisoners shall actually and effectually be made in Thirty Days from the Day of signing the Treaty. Article VIII. The Nabob Tippoo Sultaun Bahauder hereby renews and confirms all the Commercial Priviledges and Immunities given to the English by the late Nabob Hyder Ali Cawn Bahauder, who is in Heaven, and particularly stipulated and specified in the Treaty between the Company and the said Nabob, concluded the 8th of August, 1770.

Article IX. The Nabob Tippoo Sultaun Bahauder shall restore the Factory and Priviledges possessed by the English at Callicut until the Year 1779, (or 1193 Hegira) and shall restore Mount Dilly, and its District, belonging to the Settlement of Tellicherry, and possessed by the English till taken by Sadar Cawn at the Commencement of the late War.

Article X. Antonio Barcelo on the 19th, with Letters dated the 13th Instant, from which we learn, that the Combined Fleet was at Anchor in the Bay of Algiers, and that the first Attack had been made upon the Place on the 12th in the Morning: That the Algerines did not come out to meet the Assailants as had been expected; but their Gun-Boats (sixty in Number) were drawn up without the Walls of the Town, ready to receive them: That the Spaniards had sunk Four of the Enemy's Gun-Boats, and that a Fire had been observed in the Town, which broke out at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, and burnt till past Four in the Afternoon: That the principal Loss sustained by the Assailants was from the bursting of one of the Spanish Bombs, by which Two Officers and Six Men were killed; and a Gun-Boat, the Crew of which were Neapolitans, blew up some Hours after the Action. A second Attack was to take Place on the 13th.
